

WHY AM I A GOOD PROFESSIONAL AT STUDYING?

First, I am going to list all the reasons that I consider that apply in my case.

I have the technical skills:

- I am efficient, that is, I know how to maximize my study doing it in less time.
- I understand concepts easier and faster.
- I know my physical limitations, that is, I know when I should rest in order to focus better after.
- I pay attention in class in order to get half of the job done.
- I try to organize myself.
- I have participated in several contests of programming.
- I work in a project of the university with a teacher.
- I have participated in a few debates.
- I like when a job is perfectly done, thus I try to do everything the best I can.
- I plan my time.
- I get the work done in the times established.

I am a decision-maker:

- I have clear my objectives.
- I'm effective, as I know how to achieve my goals.
- I know how and when to take decisions in order to give a solution to a given problem.
- I know when I must focus myself and take things seriously.
- I adapt myself to the changes well.

I have some social skills:

- I know how to work in teams.
- I try to help to the others.
- I know how to communicate with my classroom mates.

I am independent:

- I am a self-taught person when is needed.
- I am responsible.
- I like learning.
- I like what I do, that is, I have vocation.
- I am a curious person and so I investigate themes that can't be further developed in class.

Secondly, I am going to list the reasons that would make me consider myself a better professional:

- Better organization.
- Better communication.
- Better motivation.
- Leadership skills.
- More energy/emotion.
